Rookie of Year

Any driver desiring to be a candidate of Rookie of the Year in any division MUST complete a rookie application. This application must be submitted to the track office manager BEFORE the first race of the 2013 season. To be eligible for the Rookie of the Year, candidate must not have competed in more than (5) events in the division in any prior year (including ALL racetracks). Any rookie candidate who substitutes in a race will be considered competing in said race, and said race will count as one of the four events. Previous racing experience and racing achievements in that division, a like division, higher division than the division for which you are applying, or in any other racing series or sanctioning bodies will be considered in determining rookie eligibility. A rookie of the year candidate must compete in OVER 75% of that divisions' regular points events to be eligible for the award.

Applicant's Statement

I have read and understand the above rules governing Southern National Motorsports Park's Rookie of the Year award. I verify that I am an eligible candidate for the Rookie of the Year according to the rules and restrictions governing eligibility for the Southern National Motorsports Park Rookie of the Year award.
